

County of Tom Green

State of Texas

Throughout our great state, women make immeasurable contributions in all sectors of our economy and society. Women are leaders in communities and businesses across Texas, and their innovation and achievements have helped enrich Texas in many ways.

Texas' hardworking business women possess invaluable expertise, impressive drive and the characteristic ingenuity of this great state. They have been at the forefront of the fight for equality in the workplace, and, despite obstacles, they have achieved the highest levels of success.

For a week in March, an awareness campaign will be conducted to recognize the many contributions of women in Texas' businesses.

At this time, I encourage all of Tom Green County to pay tribute to hardworking women throughout the County and the State.

Therefore, I, Michael D. Brown, County Judge of the Commissioners Court of Tom Green County, Texas, do hereby proclaim March 20th – 26th, 2011 as

Business Women's Week

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix
