4.3 Consideration by the Board.

After an application has been properly submitted and the fee has been paid, the following procedure shall be followed:

- a. The application shall be placed on the agenda for initial consideration at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the board.
- b. Unless otherwise directed by the board at the meeting where initial consideration is given to the application, the sheriff or sheriff's designee shall cause an investigation to be made to determine whether or not the applicant possesses sufficient financial resources to comply with the Code and satisfies all other requirements of the Code and these regulations, and shall cause those findings to be submitted to the board in a written report at the next meeting. If any person or entity contacted in the course of the investigation requires a release before divulging information that is different than the release form provided by the board, the sheriff or his designee shall contact the applicant and request completion of the required release. If the applicant refused to complete the release, the sheriff or his designee shall notify the board, and the board may consider the applicant's refusal to complete the required release in its decision to grant or deny the license.

- c. The application for a new or renewal license will not be considered for approval at the first meeting during which the application is initially presented.
- d. The applicant shall be notified of the date of final hearing on the application by mail, fax or e-mail, which includes a copy of the agenda and notice of the meeting, to the address contained in the application.
- e. If, after hearing, the board is satisfied that no ground exists on which to deny the application, the board shall enter an order conditionally approving the application subject to the application being perfected by the filing of the security deposits required of the license holder. At the end of ninety (90) days, if, the required security deposits have not been made as required to the treasurer, conditional approval shall expire without notice and the applicant will have to reapply.
- f. If the board determines that a ground exists to deny the application, the board shall enter an order to that effect.
- g. An order conditionally approving or denying an application for license shall be signed by the chair and filed with the board secretary. The secretary shall send a copy of the order to the applicant and attach a license certificate to approved applicants. The license certificate shall show on its face the license number and expiration date.

SECTION 8

PAYMENT OF FINAL JUDGMENTS OF FORFEITURE

8.1 In general.

If a final judgment of forfeiture that results from the license holder's execution of a bail bond remains unpaid thirty-one (31) days after the date of the final judgment, the cash deposit or proceeds from foreclosure of a deed of trust shall be paid in satisfaction of that judgment, pursuant to 1704.204 of the Occupations Code.

8.2 Cash deposited as security.

A license holder's cash deposit, if any, shall be paid in satisfaction of a bond forfeiture judgment upon presentation to the treasurer of a certified copy of a final judgment. Payments shall be to the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered.

8.3 Real property executed as security.

- a. Upon presentation to the board of a certified copy of final judgment, the deed of trust to real property executed as security shall be immediately ordered to

- be posted for foreclosure in accordance with the statutes governing foreclosures of deeds of trust and the property shall be sold at foreclosure.
- b. Upon posting for foreclosure, the security deposit of the license holder is considered depleted by the appraised value of the property.
 - c. Proceeds from the foreclosure sale shall first be applied to any expenses of sale and to court costs, and the remainder then applied to the principal and interest owing on the judgment.
 - d. If the proceeds are insufficient to satisfy the judgment, then additional properties of the license holder held in trust by the board may be foreclosed in accordance with the trust provisions and if the proceeds from the foreclosure sale are insufficient to satisfy the judgment, then the board may direct that execution issue on the judgment against any non-exempt property that the license holder may have.
 - d. Proceeds remaining after satisfaction of the judgment shall be paid over to the Treasurer for the deposit to the account of the license holder as security for outstanding bonds.

SECTION 9

EMPLOYEES OF LICENSE HOLDERS

9.1 Prior Convictions.

No license holder shall employ any person who within the preceding ten (10) years has committed a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or any felony, for which he or she has been finally convicted.

9.2 Criminal History Check.

Within thirty (30) days of the date of employment, all employees of a license holder shall submit to a criminal history check to be conducted by the sheriff. It is the responsibility of the license holder to insure that the criminal history check is done within the first thirty (30) days of employment.

9.3 Employee Cards.

- a. The sheriff shall issue an employee card to each employee of a license holder who has a satisfactory return on the criminal history check.

- b. The employee card shall be returned to the sheriff within 30 days of the termination of the employee's employment. It shall be the responsibility of the license holder to insure that this procedure is followed.
- c. When an employee leaves the employ of a license holder and fails or refuses to return the employee card, the license holder shall make every attempt to retrieve the employee's card. If this is unsuccessful the license holder shall, within fourteen (14) days of the separation from employment, send written notification to the attention of the sheriff or sheriff's designee advising of the loss of the card and the efforts taken to retrieve the employee's card. Said notification shall be by certified mail in the form of a sworn affidavit.
- d. A new employee card is required when an agent leaves the employ of one license holder to work for another license holder.
- e. ~~A $20.00 service fee shall be assessed against the license holder for the first three (3) cards. Each additional card will be $5.00 due at the time the photo of the employee is taken.~~
